Guerrero named director of CID Correctional Training and Staff Development

Eric Guerrero has been appointed director of the Correctional Institutions Division's Correctional Training and Staff Development section, effective September 1. The CTSD section provides training services for agency employees so they can gain the knowledge, understanding and skills necessary to succeed in the correctional work environment.

Guerrero began his career with the agency in March 1994 as a correctional officer at the McConnell Unit in Beeville and subsequently held every security position, including senior warden positions on five TDCJ units where
